Las Vegas, N. M., July 6.—Considerably subdued in spirit. Jim Flynn is still keeping under cover and nursing his bruises. The Fueblo heavy was in a surly mood to-day and had little to say beyond reliterating the statement that he would have won if the fight had not been stopped by the police.

To add to his troubles Flynn has been sued by B. F. Uter for an alleged debt of several hundred dollars. The former manager of Carl Morris had filed an attachment and taken possession of Flynn's personal effects.

Promoter Curiey is still about town taking stock of his losses incurred in staging the fight. He is said to be a heavy loser on the affair.

The stricken Highlanders came home esterday, nursing their bruises but still ill of fight. They battled valiantly against the Washingtons and were strictly in the running until the last man was out. They were beaten by a score of 8 to 7 in a game in which the lead seesawed and in which the Washingtons made two of their runs in the ninth inning. Ford pitched as good ball as could be expected under the circumstances, and although the fielding on both sides was ragged, that of the Highlanders was more misplay by Zinn in the ninth being particularly costly.

The scoring began in the third inning th the Washingtons the first to cross the plate. An error started the visitors around. Daniels gracefully muffed Mc-Bride's fly and the batter hustled to second on the blunder. On Henry's strikeout Sweeney threw to second to nip McBride Pirates and Cubs lost the New Yorks wade a buy gain. The Cardinals downed

The teams lay low in the fifth, but in the sixth the Washingtons broke loose with two runs. They were the result of two bagger to the scoreboard by Hughes, pass to Moeller, an infield hit by Foster, single by Milan and an infield out. The half inning closed with a pretty catch by Otis, who ran in for Shanks's short liner.

otis, who ran in for Shanks's short liner. The Highlanders responded with a spurt of their own, amassing two tallies in the sixth. Sterrett opened with a three base hit through Milan's field and trotted home when Zinn singled. The throw in got away from Gandii and Zinn streaked around to third, from which point he came the rest of the way on a single by Simmons. The runs were accred before anybody was out, but although Sweeney made the fourth hit of the inning there was no more scoring.

The seventh inning was a bad one for the New Yorks, who witnessed their opponents' jump into the lead again with a batch of three runs. There was a pass to McBride, then two outs. Moeller's single and steal, two bases on balls, a poor throw by Wolverton and a hit by Gandil produced the counts. The New Yorks tied the score in the eighth. They made two runs. A two bagger by Simmons, single by Wolverton and two bagger by Daniels were the reasons thereof. In the ninth Hughes was passed, Moeller and Foster were duly retired and Milan banged a single to centre, which Zinn falled to stop. The elusive ball rolled to the fence and two runs resulted. In New Yorks half McConnell, first up, made an infield hit and reached second on Hughes's throw past Gandil. Maloney ran for McConnell and occupied third on Sterrett's out. He came in on Zinn's fly to Shanks, and the game ended with a strikeout by Simmons.

NOW HE LOSES, NOW HE WINS. AMERICA AWAY TO NOW HE LOSES, NOW HE WINS. A RUNNING START CHICAGO, July 6 .- Jack Johnson, the heavyweight champion, arrived here today after having enjoyed the limelight of every town between Las Vegas and out at every station to see the Highest Hopes Realized in Opening Olympic Contests.

SPRINTERS REVELATION

"I wanted Flynn to have every chance in the world," said Johnson, "and that is why I let the fight go as long as I did."

The statement of Jack Curley that as promoter of the Johnson-Flynn fight he stood to lose $15,000 was discredited by Johnson. The champion said he believed Curley made a little money out of the fight, Johnson's share, he said, amounted to $35,000, of which $5,000 was won on a wager. He said that his wife had won $6,000 also.

"I don't care if I never see another boxing glove," said Johnson. "I will continue to meet white hopes, however, until Labor Day Palzer and the rest will have to meet no before then, because I am going to retire on that day."

Special Cable Despatch to TRE SOR. STOCKHOLM, Sweden, July 8. American athletes started off in the Olympic games in glorious style this afternoon by almost sweeping the board in the 100 meter event After the semi-finals had been run five of the six men to qualif; for the final tomorrow were the shield of the United States The sixth semi-finalist is a South African. In the 800 meter event the victories scored by America were almost as sweeping. In the nine trial heats, in which first and second men qualified for the final, representatives of the United States provided eight of the eighteen men, entirely outclassing the other countries. In this event Great Britain has four men left and Canada has two.

There was but one final in the day. This was in throwing the javelin, which was won, as expected, by E. V. Lemming of Sweden. He broke his own world's record with a throw of 60 meters 64 centimeters, or about 681 yards. The previous record was 58 meters 27 centimeters. J. J. Saaristo of Finland was second, with 58 meters 66 centimeters and Miklos Kovacs of Hungary third, with 55 meters 50 centimeters.

Although it was expected that the fine aggregation of sprinters that carried the colors of America would make a great showing in the short distance events few persons were prepared for the wholesals manner in which they disposed of the crack runners of the Old World. From the moment that Ira Courtney of the Seattle A. C. won the third heat in 11 seconds, thus being the first to cross the
